

Insurance information - Personal Accident Insurance

Insurance policy number O110SE210
Policy holder Stockholms stad

Stockholms stad has taken out accident insurance for children, pupils, young persons and other groups within the municipality. The insurance information provides a brief description of the scope of the insurance. It is always the insurance policy and the complete Swedish insurance terms and conditions that are used in the event of a loss adjustment.

An accidental injury is a body injury that the insured party suffers involuntarily through a sudden external event, violence to the body from the outside. This insurance is not valid for illness.

Personal injury claim

Any claim shall be reported directly on the S:t Erik Försäkrings AB website:
www.sterikforsakring.se
Email: st.erik.ofall@jwlab.se
Tel: 010 - 184 77 90

Measures in the event of a loss

Please see a doctor or dentist who is affiliated to the Social Insurance Agency. Please save all receipts. Any need for a taxi to and from school due to the accident shall be confirmed by a certificate from the doctor providing treatment. The certificate shall show the period for which a taxi has been granted. Before the taxi journeys to and from school are ordered, Crawford & Co shall be contacted for confirmation. Please send in the certificate in conjunction with filing the claim. Taxi journeys may be ordered following confirmation from JW Loss Adjusting AB.

Activity period

The insurance is valid for accidental injury occurring during the activity period when participating in leisure activities, practical experience, education, care or other occupation for which Stockholms stad is responsible:

Activity period

The time the insured party is participating in insured activities, and journeys to and from the activities.

24 hours per day

24 hours per day, including leisure time and holidays.

Medical costs

The insurance pays compensation for necessary and reasonable costs for medical care, medicines, treatment and technical aids to heal the injury. The costs shall have arisen within five years of the time of the injury. Compensation is also paid for hospital care. The costs are only compensated where care is given that is also compensated by general insurance or is otherwise financed through public funds.

Dental injury costs

The insurance pays compensation for necessary and reasonable costs for treatment of teeth or dentures damaged in the mouth. The costs shall have arisen within five years of the time of the injury. The costs must be approved by JW Loss Adjusting AB before the treatment begins. If the final treatment of the injury must be deferred, it may be compensated if the insured party has not yet turned 25 years.

Travel costs

The insurance pays compensation for travel costs in conjunction with care and treatment. Compensation is also paid for journeys with special means of transport in order to enable participation in schoolwork if a doctor has prescribed this. The costs shall have arisen within five years of the time of the injury. Travel costs are compensated for at most in the self-financed amount for journeys while ill stated in the National Insurance Act and shall be approved in advance by JW Loss Adjusting AB.

Damaged clothes and glasses

If the accidental injury should lead to the insured party needing medical treatment, compensation is paid for the cost of possessions normally worn on the body.

Additional costs

If the accidental injury has entailed medical treatment, compensation may be paid for the insured party's necessary and unavoidable additional costs arising during the acute healing period as a result of the accidental injury.

Disability

Compensation may be paid for medical or economic disability. The final assessment can be made only when the injury has healed and the doctor has assessed that the condition has stabilised. Compensation is paid in such a proportion to the insured amount as corresponds to the degree of disability determined.

Technical aids

If the accidental injury is expected to lead to permanent disability, compensation is paid for technical aids.

Death

If the insured party dies as a result of the accidental injury within three years of the accident, or during the insured period irrespective of cause up to the age of 25 years, compensation is paid to the estate of the insured party.
